DANCES

Even though the number of school dances was cut back considerably, they were a continued success throughout the year.

1. Hat and glasses day is always a favorite during homecoming week. 2. The football game was the climax of the week. 3. The senior float took first place. 4. The band, along with the Phi-Dels and Arrowflight, put in many hours preparing for the fine half time show. 5. Miss Bingham, Mrs. Kissinger, Mr. Mitchell, and Mrs. Adair show that even the teachers get involved.

School spirit overflowed at Preston High during the week of Homecoming. In addition to the football game and half time show — hall decorating, window painting, pep rallies, and the assembly helped to increase the enthusiasm and spirit throughout the school.

9▼

5▲

10▼

6▼

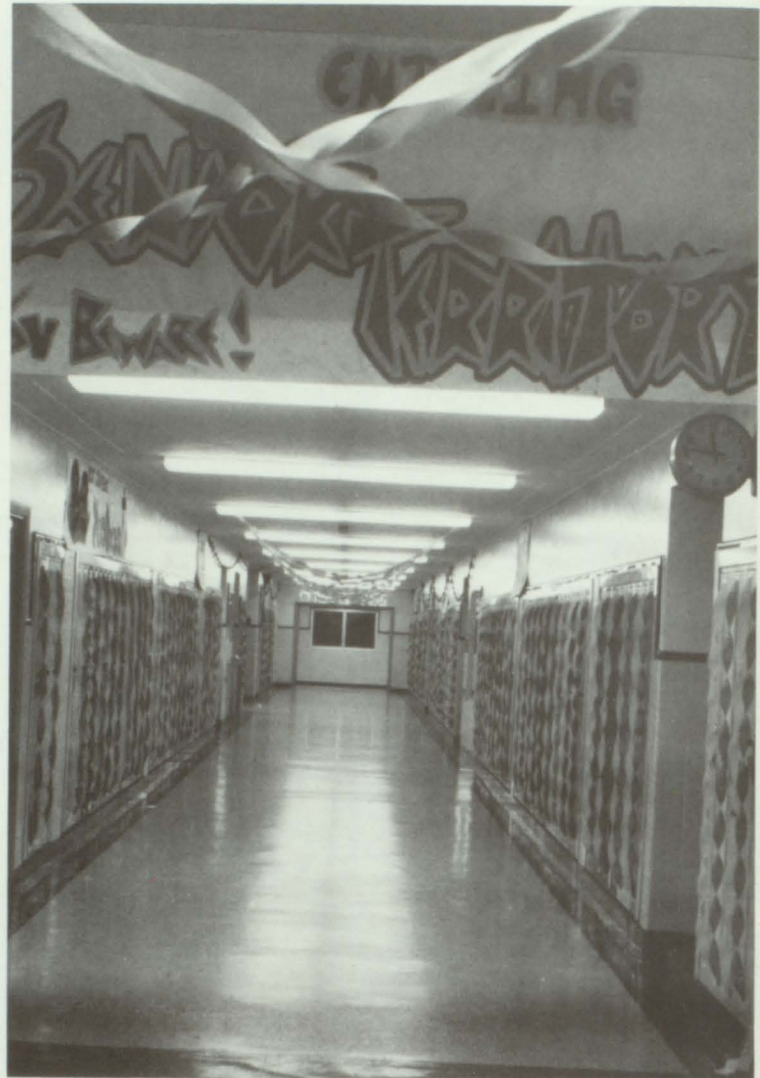

6. Terry Larson, Shane Foster, and Clendon Christensen worked on the sophomore window in an annual homecoming tradition. 7. Despite the loss, the students kept their spirits high. 8. This year's homecoming queen, Suzette Bosworth, was crowned by last year's queen, Angie Collins. 9. The theme song for homecoming, "Hard Habit to Break" was sung by Tammi Haworth and Randy Seamons. 10. Kristi Torfin, Janine Burbank, Randy Seamons, Nyla Anderson, and Jamie Rasmussen worked hard on the award winning senior hall.

... THE SPIRIT

CONTINUES

1. The football team came out fired up for the second half. 2. Governor Evans, who attended this year's Homecoming, was introduced to several students by Mr. Baxter. 3. Senior hall took first place. 4. The Pep Club resurrected school spirit during the assembly. 5. Mark Benson & Bret Adamson dueled it out during the twinkie stuff. 6. Cheerleaders rise to the occasion during the Homecoming assembly. 7. The Homecoming royalty was introduced during the assembly. 8. The Bonfire was a big success despite the pouring rain.

1. Seniors score another touchdown. 2. Nancy Christensen amazed everyone with her blazing speed. 3. The junior & senior captains were introduced by the refs, Mr. Majerus & Mr. Bergeson. 4. Laura Egbert let fly with a long bomb. 5. The winning senior squad. 6. The senior cheerleaders, Brian Baetge, Chad King, Chris Anderson & Mike Griffeth, showed off their legs.

PUFF

The Powder Puff game, sponsored by the War Cry, is a chance for some role changing. The girls get a chance to go out and knock heads on the football field and show how tough they are, while the boys get a chance to show off their beauty and charm as cheerleaders. This year's game saw the senior team again claim the victory by a score of 34-6. It was a fun night for both participants and spectators.

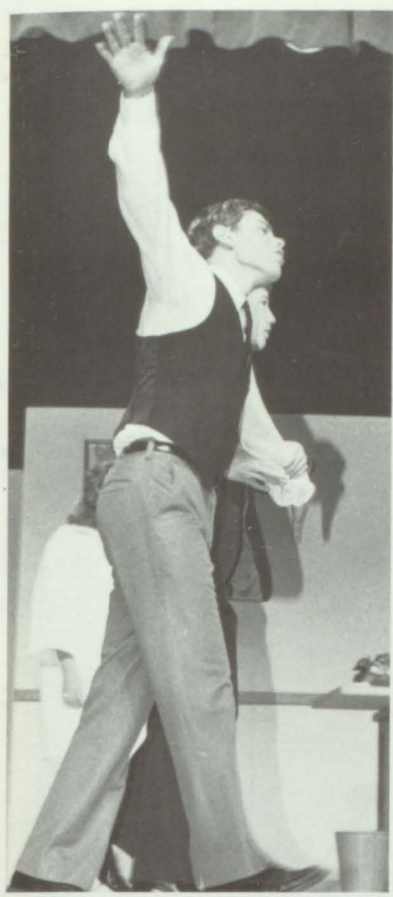

1. Brian Daley was crowned king by Kristen Rindlisbaker. 2. Junior cheerleaders, Mike Hayes, Bret Adamson, Darin Bowling, Paul Bowler, Jay Kirkbride, David Saxton and Brian Prochnow took the cake for ugly. 3. Junior squad will have to wait 'till next year for a victory. 4. The girls show that they can mix it up too. 5. The junior offense had trouble scoring against the senior defense.

DON'T DRINK

THE WATER

This year's school play was the 25th production directed by Mr. Derricott at Preston High. Because of the abundance of talent, several parts were double cast. The delightful comedy was presented by the Drama Department in two morning performances to the student body and to the public in three night performances. Congratulations to Mr. Derricott, assistant director, Mr. Keith Buys, Student director, Candace Kunz, and all those associated with the play.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

The annual Christmas assembly, presented by the Phi-Dels, was again a big success. The Studentbody was treated to a variety of entertainment aimed at getting them into the Christmas spirit. Santa Claus made his usual appearance, bringing some quite unusual gifts to many Preston High students.

3▼

1▲

2

5▼

6▼

4

1. The Phi-Dels donned their red Christmas outfits to promote Christmas cheer. 2. Santa Claus brought presents to many of the PHS students. 3. Stacey Smith, in a more traditional blue outfit. 4. Brenda Johnson and Arrow-Flight also presented a routine. 5. The cheerleaders presented their version of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." 6. The Phi-Dels demonstrate the domino effect.

2▲

The Junior Assembly was one of the events which took place during Unity Week. It was a chance for the juniors to display their talents. Also the Unity Ball royalty was introduced.

1. Jay Kirkbride and Paul Bowler do their imitations of Billy Squire. 2. Annette Baird, Jill Swainston and Tonya Porter discuss their dates for the big dance during a skit. 3. Carl Bowling was the M.C.

3▲

ASSEMBLIES

A tremendous improvement was seen in this year's pep assemblies. Besides the cheerleaders, other organizations got involved, greatly increasing the variety and interest. The pep assemblies were very successful at boosting the enthusiasm of the studentbody.

1A

4V

1. Students show their enthusiasm during a pep assembly.
2. Some of the boys show off their charm and coordination.
3. Only Shawn Moser's hair dresser (Myron Hartley) knows for sure.
4. Wendy Bertsch represents the freshmen in class competition.

2

3

Besides the pep assemblies, there were assemblies aimed at broadening the horizons of the students, plus entertaining them.

1. Mr. Christensen found the magician to be a pain in the neck. 2. Students were treated to a wide variety of music. 3. DeAnn Goodsell, Chris Anderson, and Shane Bowcutt get in on the jugglers' act. 4. Mr. Wilcox surprises the lead singer accompanying the Aggiettes. 5. It's not hard to see why the Aggiettes were a big hit with the students.

SENIOR

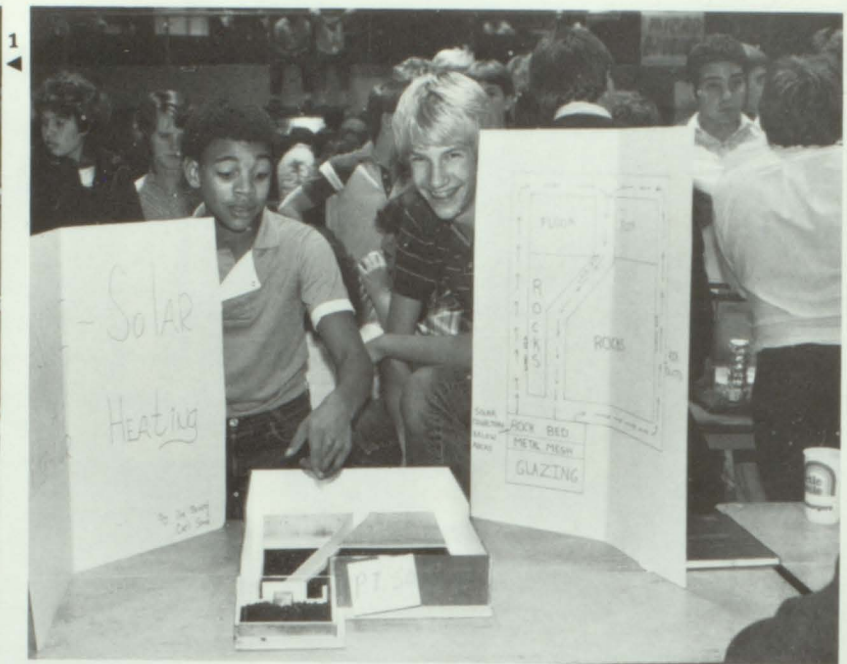

ASSEMBLY

During the Senior Assembly, much talent was displayed. The Senior Phi-Dels, Arrow Flight and Cheerleaders performed their last routines. It was the one last opportunity for seniors to show off their talents. On the humorous side, their several glimpses of what the future might bring. As a finale, the candle ceremony set a sentimental tone to end the assembly and left the rest of the student-body with a feeling of emptiness.

SCIENCE FAIR

This year's annual science fair was the biggest ever held at Preston High. There were 252 projects involving 360 science students. Despite the hours of preparation and the 6 hours they had to spend sitting with their projects, many students felt the efforts were well worth it. Grand prize winners were Shane Golightly and Robert Gregory.

1. David Jones demonstrated the forces involved in creating a hurricane. 2. Carl Simms and Joe Beard demonstrate solar heating. 3. The auditorium was wall to wall people. 4. There were many projects to interest the students and public.

ACADEMIC TEAM

2V

3

This year's Academic Olympiad team put in many hours of study time and hard work which placed them eighth out of 22 high schools in northern Utah and southern Idaho. They also were the top school in Cache Valley. Despite the hard work, the team composed of 2-A, 2-B, and 2-C students, had a lot of fun participating in the tough competition.

1. The 1984-85 Olympiad team and advisors. 2. Kim Clark, Penny Whitehead, Lynnae Chandler and Annette Baird take a break in between competitions. 3. The Olympiad team received a lot of help from Mr. Christensen and the other advisors. 4. Donald Liebes, Jay Swann, Bryant Sorensen try to prove they have brawn not just brains.

UNITY

Promotion of school unity and spirit was generated during Unity Week. The week was full of fun and excitement for all who got involved.

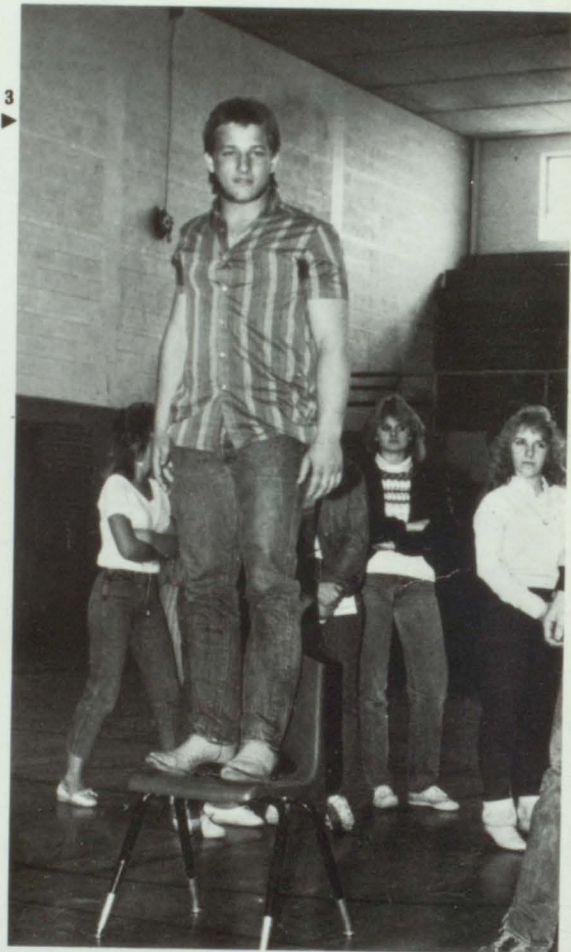

1. The beach dance got many students involved. 2. Tootsie Day started the week of fun. 3. Robby Hobbs on the auction block during the slave auction. 4. Melanie Biggs and Jason Sharp try to blend into the background on Camouflage day. 5. Devin Stanger thinks "If you've got it, flaunt it!" 6. Adam Gleason will do his picture in the yearbook. 7. Nerds roamed the halls at PHS. 8. The California boy in Brian Baetge comes out during Beach day.

UNITY BALL

The Unity Ball was the climax of Unity Week. It is the classiest event of the year and a chance for students and their parents to enjoy an extravagant evening of dancing and entertainment.

1▲

2▲

3▲

4▲

5▲

1. Sheri Hobbs and Shawn Winger enjoy the fine refreshments. 2. Shane Moser, Holly Edwards, Amanda Moser and Chad King participate in one of the best choreographed and rehearsed promenades in recent years. 3. Senior Queen, Penny Whitehead, is crowned by last year's senior queen, Pauleen Balls. 4. The theme song "One More Night" was sung by Tamara Stanko and Jeff Rich. 5. There was a good crowd to enjoy the fine music and decorations.

THE MUSIC MAN

"The Music Man" had all the ingredients of a delightful musical play with something for everyone. It combined good music, humor, romance and even a chase scene. The director, cast, and production staff put in many hours to present the play in 3 night performances. For the first time in many years the musical was accompanied by an orchestra, in addition to the pianists.

The varsity football team, under first year Coach Majerus, struggled through the most difficult season in the recent past, ending with a 1-7 record. They lost several close games, including an 8-0 loss to the district champion American Falls. Despite the record, the studentbody continued to support and encourage the team. Selected to the All-District team were Robby Hobbs, 1st team; Perry Holton and Darin Bowling, honorable mention.

J.V. FOOTBALL

The J.V. squad, under the direction of coaches Johnson and Bergeson, produced another winning season with a 3-2 record. Vast improvements were made that brighten the future for the varsity in upcoming years.

The Freshman squad, under Coach Hyde, also produced a winning season with a 3-2 record. The freshmen, in addition to being a large class, have a lot of talented athletes and are looking forward to their turn in varsity uniforms.

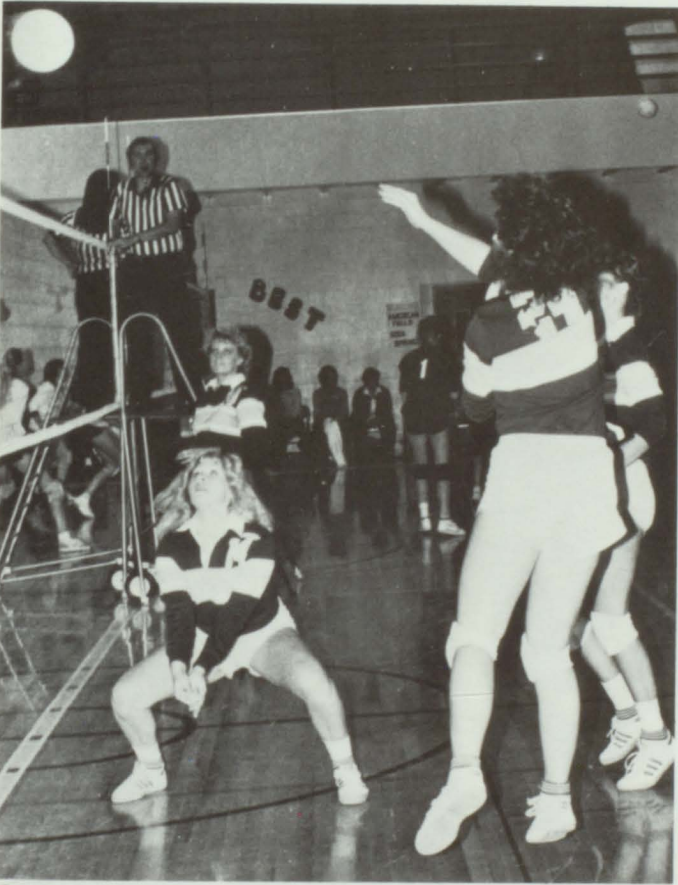

VOLLEYBALL

The Varsity Volleyball squad had another outstanding season under Coach Moser. They ended with a 22-4 record and a district championship. Dreams of a second straight state title were dashed with a loss to Madison, a team they had beaten three times during the regular season. They went on to take third place. Amy Olson and Amanda Moser were selected to the All-District senior team. Amy was also 2nd team All-State. Jill Swainston was selected to the 1st team All-State squad.

VARSITY

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team, under Coach Paskins, continued their dominance of the 5th District with a 22-4 record and another district championship. From there they went on to 3rd place at state, losing a 1 point contest to Madison that cost them a probable state championship. Jill Swainston was selected to the 1st team All-State squad and Amy Olsen was selected to the All-District senior squad and 2nd team All-State.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

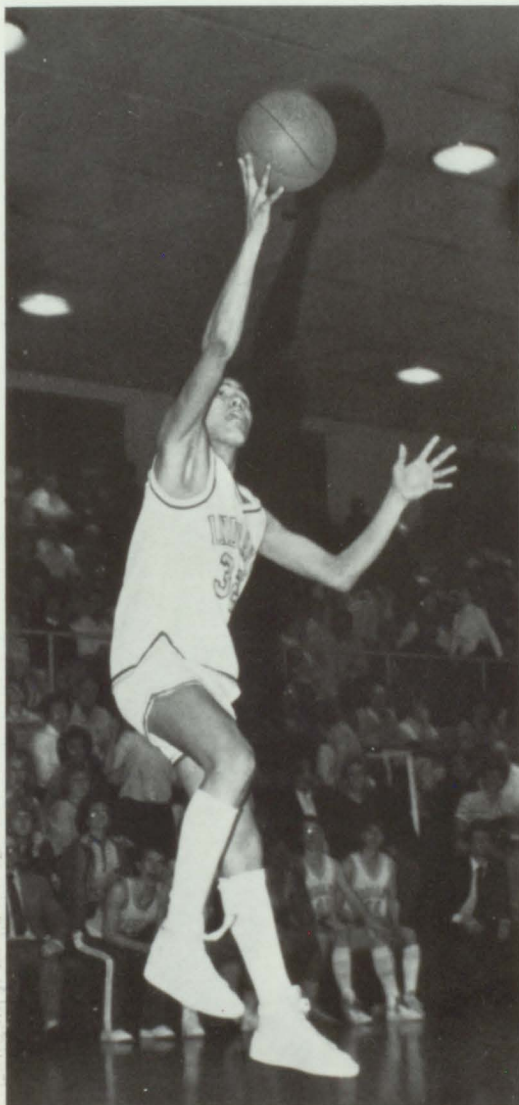

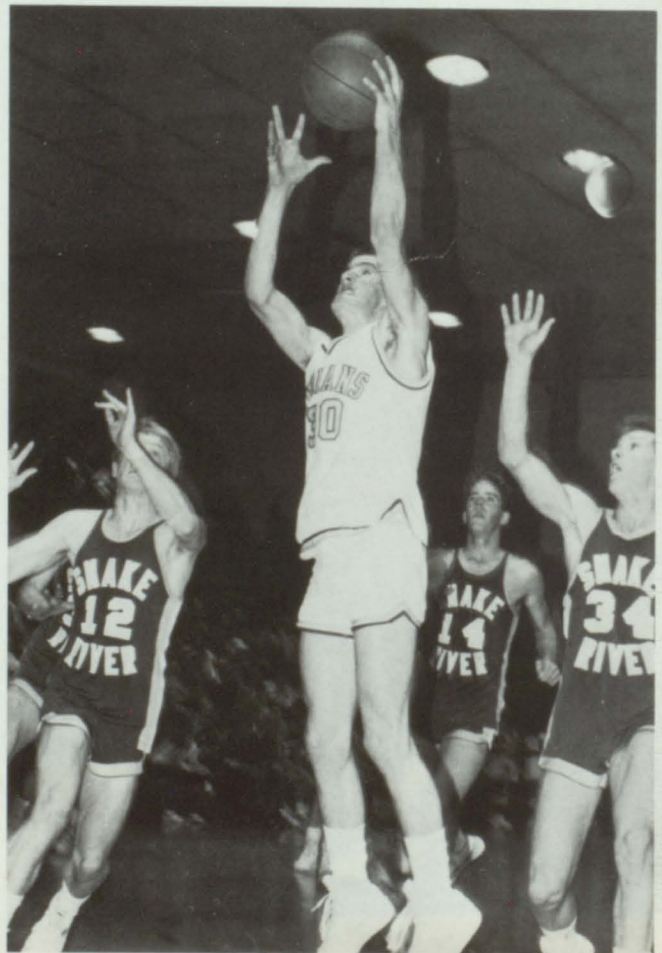

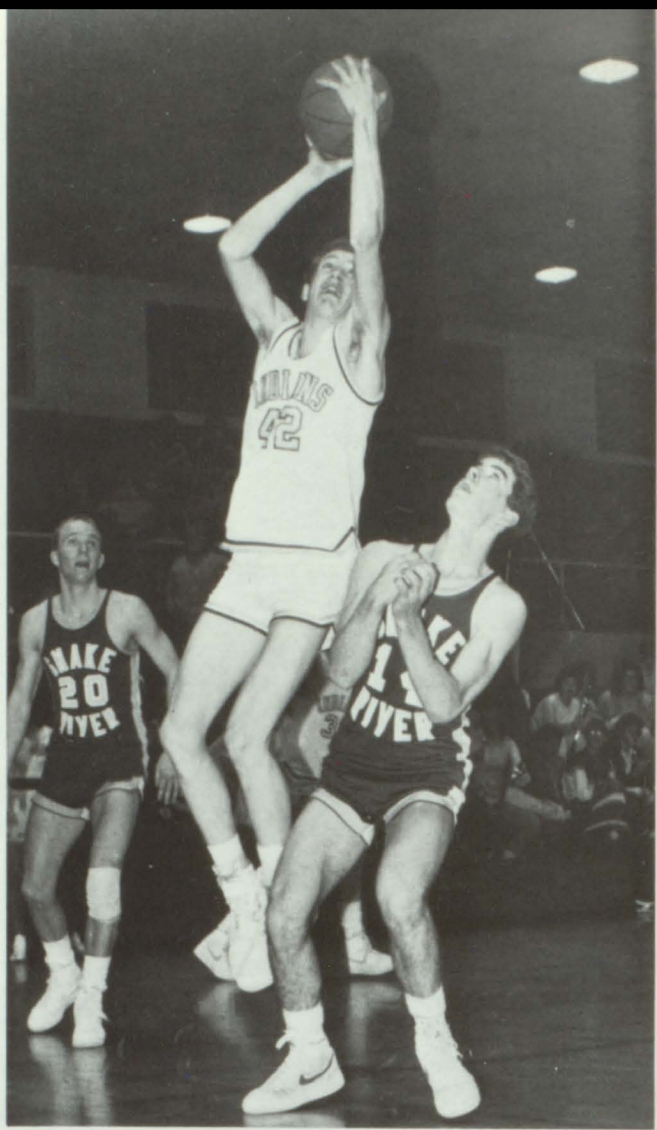

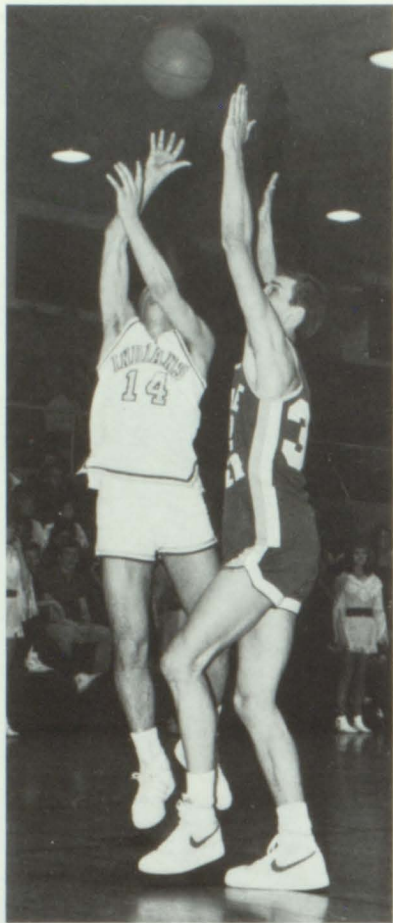

VARSITY

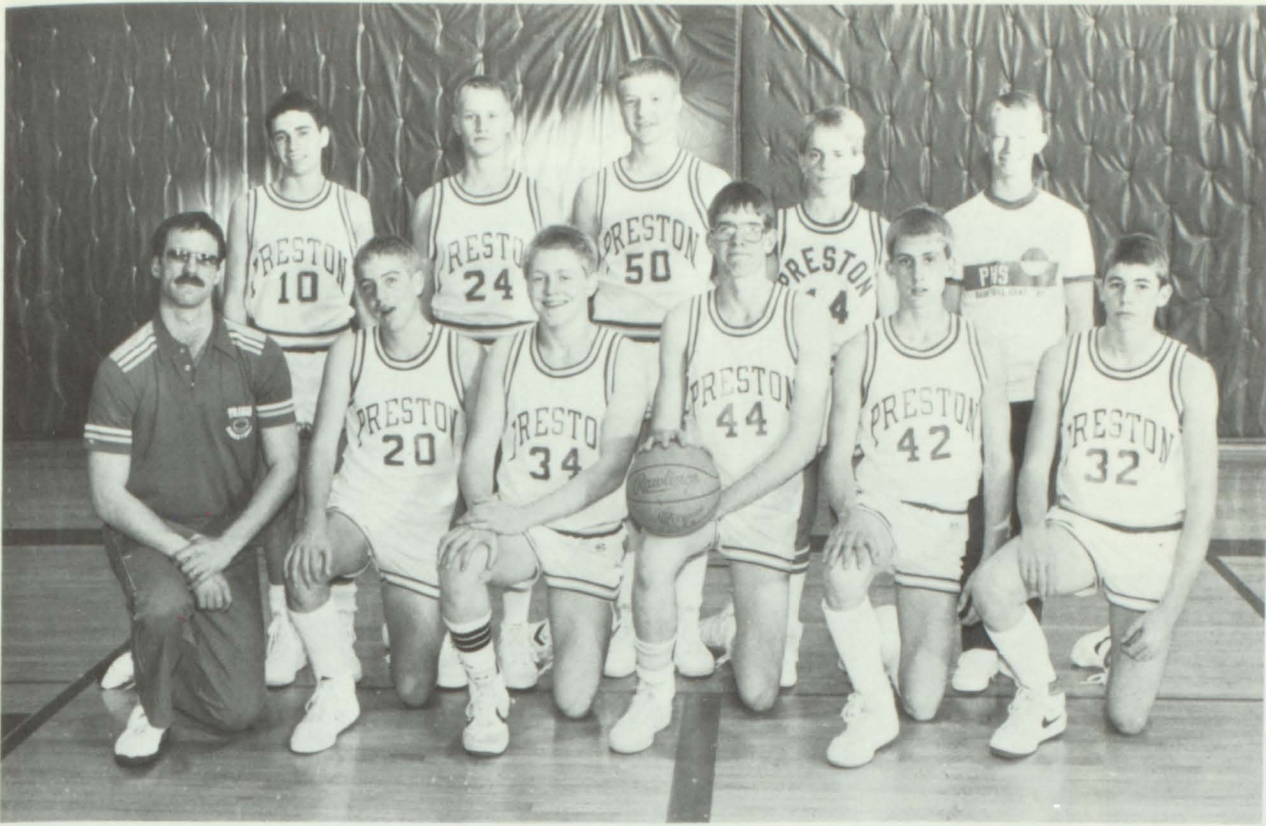

The boys' varsity basketball team, under Coach Bergeson, ended the season with an 8-15 record while playing in the toughest district in the state. An indication of the competition in the district was the fact that the regular season district championship, the district tournament championship, and the state championship were won by three different schools. Preston handed American Falls one of only two conference losses and lost an overtime game to eventual state champs, Snake River. The team is looking forward to next year when they'll return three starters. Gaining individual honors was Mark Benson, who was selected 1st team All-District and honorable mention All-State.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Despite little publicity, no home meets, long hours and a lot of hard work, the cross-country team, coached by Mr. Kissinger, did themselves proud. The highlight of the season was a first place finish at district by Janine Burbank, which qualified her to go to state.

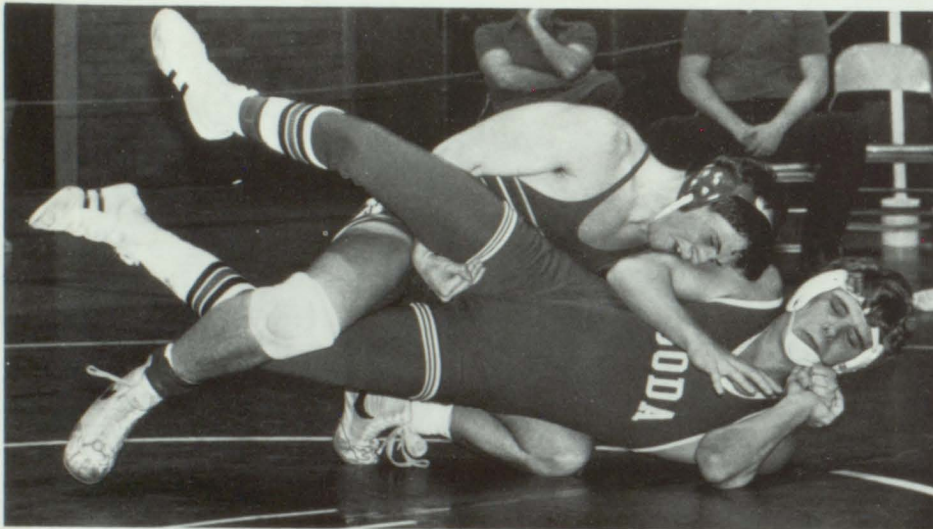

TRACK

The track team, coached by coaches Johnson, Bergeson, and Majerus, had its best season in several years. They placed second at district to American Falls and qualified ten members to compete at the state meet. They were Paul Bowler, Darin Bowling, Bryon Daley, Mike Griffeth, Norm Sorenson, Shawn Moser, Shawn Wayment, David Saxton, Perry Holton and Margret Knapp. Two school records were set this year. Perry Holton broke a 31 year old record in the high jump with a leap of 6'2½". Bryon Daley set a new mark in the triple jump at 40'.

The wrestlers, coached by Coach Kissinger and assisted by Coach Mann, came up with a winning season in dual meets with a 7-6 record. They also were impressive in tournaments, ending up 3rd at district. Taking district titles were Robby Hobbs, Kurt Jensen, and Kelton Anderson. Kelton went on to place 2nd at state and Kurt placed 5th.

GOLF

The golf team, under the tutorship of Coach Brown, had a good year, with two seniors and a lot of young, up and coming golfers. They placed 2nd at the district tournament and tied for 6th at state. The "old pro" of the team was Scott Krantz, who was edged out of district medalist honors on the last hole. He went on to tie for 3rd at state.

SOCCER

The Soccer team, coached by Coach Moore, is gaining popularity at PHS. Although not a sanctioned sport by the IHSA, the team played each game as though the state title depended on it. They reigned as champs of Cache Valley with wins over both Logan and Sky View.

O.E.A.

O.E.A., advised by Miss Thompson, helps its members increase their occupation oriented skills through various activities and competitions. This year's president is Melanie Swann.

RIFLE CLUB

Members of the Rifle Club, tutored by Mr. Biggs, soon learn that there's more to marksmanship than just picking up a gun and shooting it. A lot of practice and determination have to accompany natural talent.

Although there was no statewide competition this year, several members of the team distinguished themselves. This year's president is Wade Schvandeveltdt.

The Lettermen's Club, advised by Coach Majerus, is an exclusive club for students who letter in athletics. Although traditionally a club for the guys, in recent years it has been opened to the female athlete as well. This year's president is Robby Hobbs.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club, advised by Coach Bergeson, are a bunch of hot dogs (no insult intended). These avid skiers look for any excuse to hit the slopes. The highlight of the year was a trip to Jackson Hole, Wyoming. This year's president is Phil Petterborg.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club, advised by Mr. Mitchell, is one of the largest clubs in the school. The chance to experience the German language was enhanced this year by a three week visit from a group of students from Germany (see Page 123) and then some of our students went to Germany for a similar visit during the summer. This year's president is Shawn Hinkley.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, advised by Mr. Petersen, has also grown in size in recent years. Besides learning the language, the students also became more acquainted with the cultures of Spanish Speaking countries. This year's president is Bret Adamson.

SPEECH AND DRAMA

The Speech and Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. Derricott, had a busy year. Besides the school play "Don't Drink the Water," there was state competitions, a variety show and an old fashion melodrama "Sagebrush Sal." The Highest individual honor went to Kim Gleason, who placed 1st at State in retold story. This year's co-presidents are Tandy Roberts and Jeff Dunyon.

F.H.A.

Future Homemakers of America, advised by Mrs. Marble, helps prepare its members for the many aspects of running a household. They are involved in many activities, one of the more popular being the table setting contest. 1st place at state went to Jeanne Miles. This year's president is Karen Geddes.

F.F.A.

FFA exposes students to many aspects of the agricultural business. They gain a lot of valuable experience that will be of use in their future.

QUIVER

The Quiver staff, advised by Mr. Buys, spent many hours of hard work putting together memories of the 1984-85 school year. This year's editor is Teri Bennett (above). In addition to Shanna Whitehead (right), the staff included Chad King, Shawn Hinckley, Anne Owen and Paula Oliverson.

WAR CRY

Advisor, Mrs. Mann, editor, Julie Poole, and the entire War Cry Staff are to be commended on the quality of this year's student newspaper. Many hours of hard work went into producing the paper and many hours were spent by students enjoying the various articles.

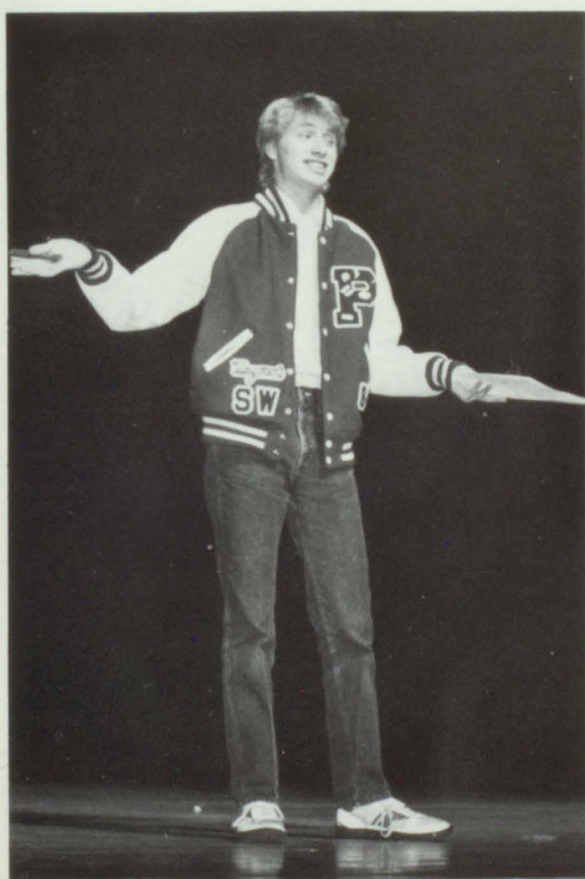

V.I.C.A.

V.I.C.A., under the guidance of Mr. Wilcox, again claimed many honors this year. The team at right took 1st place at state competition in Opening and Closing Ceremonies in the leadership category. The team below took 3rd place in the same competition. Individual honors came to Jay Ransbottom and Kurt Jensen, who took 1st place in the state Plymouth, Triple A troubleshooting and will attend the nationals during the summer. Jay also placed 1st in state in automotive skills. This year's president is Mike Priestley, who was also state parliamentarian.

RENAISSANCE CLUB

The Renaissance Club, advised by Mrs. Mann, had another fun year. Besides experiencing different cultural events, they also got involved in one of the pep assemblies, much to the enjoyment of the entire studentbody. This year's king is Chad King (how fitting!).

CHAMBER CHOIR

The Chamber Choir, directed by Mr. Petersen, is a select group of singers who must audition for the honor of being a member. They perform a wide variety of music from the Beach Boys' "Ba Barbara Ann" to Handel's "Sing unto God." They received an Excellent rating at district contests. This year's president is Tammi Haworth.

CHOIR

The regular choir, also directed by Mr. Petersen, had a busy year. They sponsored the BYU Young Ambassadors, put on the Christmas Concert, the musical "The Music Man," and the Spring Concert. They received an Excellent rating at district contests.

BAND

The band, under first year director Mr. Mitchell, accomplished great things this year. For the first time in quite a few years, they earned a superior rating at district festival. The year was full of performances. In addition to playing at many sporting events, there was also the Christmas Concert, Homecoming parade and halftime show, a jazz ensemble competition, where they received an Excellent rating, Jeff Kaiser Night at the ISU Minidome, a Pops Concert, the Spring Concert, and Graduation Exercises. This year's drum majors are Penny Whitehead and Chad King.

PHI-DELS

Throughout the year the Phi-Dels, advised by Mrs. Crockett, worked hard to present outstanding performances at various school activities, including sports events, Homecoming parade and halftime show, the Christmas Assembly, Jeff Kaiser Night at ISU's Minidome, and the variety show. Taking 2nd place at 5th District was another highlight of the year. This year's president is Bev Rumsey. The drill mistresses are Sheridyn Roper and Amanda Moser.

ARROW FLIGHT

Arrow Flight, with Kathryn Lewis as drill mistress, continued the fine quality of flag and banner routines. They participated in half times of various sporting events, assemblies, a variety show, and Jeff Kaiser Night at ISU's Minidome. This year's president is Nicky Bradford.

CHEERLEADERS

This Year's Squad Included (Top Photo, Left to Right) Joy Hobbs, Cami Palmer, Leslie Pearce, Tamara Stanko, Tammi Haworth, Amanda Moser (mascot), Terri Beckstead, Rainee Hebbon, Karen Geddes, Robyn Haworth, Sherri Hoffman.

This year's cheerleading squad, with Mrs. Petterborg as advisor, continued the tradition of excellence in cheerleading at Preston High. They placed 2nd out of 50 squads at the NCA competition. They put in many hours practicing routines that added to the excitement of games and pep assemblies.

PEP CLUB

This year's Pep Club, advised by Mrs. Moser, was one of the largest in recent years, due in part to new requirements to try out for cheerleading, Phi-Dels, and Arrow Flight. The increased pep and enthusiasm added to the excitement of the games. This year's president is Leslie Pearce.
